

— THE SAXOPHONE SYMPOSIUM —

Volume 36-37 (2013-2014)

CONTENTS

Notice to Contributors	ix
Financial Reports	xi
Articles
The First Solo Saxophone Recording Reconsidered Thomas Smialek	1
The Symphonious Saxophone I: A History of the Large Saxophone Ensemble Andrew Justin Allen	39
The Symphonious Saxophone II: A Quantitative Analysis of the Saxophone Ensemble's Original Literature, with a Focus on the Establishment of Standard Instrumentation Andrew Justin Allen	60
Fernande Breilh-Decruck: Waiting for (Re)Discovery Scottie W. Wright	74
America's "Young Lady Saxophonist" of the Gilded Age: The Performances, Critical Reception, and Repertoire of Bessie Mecklem Thomas Smialek and L. A. Logrande	90
The Use of the Saxophone in the Music of Jules Massenet Jordan P. Smith	124
Roman Palester's Concertino for Alto Saxophone and String Orchestra Brian Kauth	181
Reviews
Hutchins-Choi Duo, Images—American Sonatas James Kaly	209
Jan Berry Baker and Kenneth Long, Citizens of Nowhere Stephen Fischer	210

Douglas D. Skinner, The Saxophone Handbook – A Complete Guide to Tone, Technique, Performance, & Maintenance Julia Nolan	212
The Saxophone in Zagreb Eugene Rousseau	214
Contributor Biographies	217

The Saxophone Symposium is published annually and available exclusively to NASA members. For back issues, please visit <http://www.jeanne-inc.com/>. For inquiries as to individual and institutional membership rates, contact Membership Director James Romain. Ideas and opinions expressed in The Saxophone Symposium do not necessarily reflect those of the North American Saxophone Alliance. Permission for reprint and/or reproduction must be obtained in writing and the proper credit line given.

Copyright © 2015 by the North American Saxophone Alliance. All Rights Reserved.